On September 28, 1975, Senator Strom Thurmond phone me. He said he was calling for Senator James Eastland and himself and that Senator Eastland could not call because of his injury.

He said he would like us to suggest a good man to take over the job of Director of the Staff of the Internal Security Committee. They need a knowledgeable man and a good administrator and they preferred that he be somewhere between 30 and 55 years of age.

Senator Thurmond requested I call him on September 30, 1975.

Please give me any prospects you have in mind by September 30, 1975.

Very truly yours,

Clarence M. Kelley
